INGABA YINDLALO NA LE?

Isivumelwano sangomhla we-15 ku July asikange sibe nakuphila ubomi obude. Amapolisa ibe ngabantu bokuqala ukuzaphula ngokuthi bangene elokishini ngaphandle kokwazisa iinkokheli zoluntu njengoko kuvunyelwene.
Ukanti amagosa ongameleyo amapolisa aye azisa umfundisi Ben Kock ukuba ucolonel de Villiers webutho lozinzo lwamapolisa akanagunya lakuthatha izigqibo.
Nombutho wabahlali ukwavele nento ekwafana nale yamapolisa. Xa ebenikezela ingxelo umfu. Kock uthe umnu.Lulamile Banjwa kunye namanye amadoda angasawakhumbuliyo kakuhle, athe imibutho ibixoxa ayikange ifumane gunya lokwenza izigqibo.

MESSENGER FROM THE WORLD TRADE CENTRE

The national multi-party talks at the World Trade Centre were " basically sound" but had reached their "most dangerous stage at this time."
This is what Colesberg farmers were told by Mr Theuns Eloff -an organiser at the talks - at a packed meeting, arranged by the Farmers' Union.
Referring to the critical stage the talks had reached, he said: " It is like the moment of passing the baton in a relay race."
But, he added: " Die trein het vertrek... Dit is nie moontlik om die trein te stop nie."
Mr Eloff stressed the " strong breakthrough on regional government" at the talks.
He stressed that some form of "affirmative action" in public institutions was necessary and unavoidable.

 Below: examples of agreements reached at the talks...

> At each level of government there shall be democratic representation.

> The diversity of language and culture shall be acknowledged and protected, and conditions for their promotion shall be encouraged.

HOW RELEVANT ARE OUR MUSEUMS?

The South African Museum Association held a conference in Durban this May with eminent British museologist Mr Kenneth Hudson as its guest speaker.
During his stay he visited almost all the major museums and was less than impressed with the approach to black themes. He found most displays generalised and simplistic which prompted him to ask whether our museums are just monuments to "white supremacy"?
Belinda Gordon of the Kemper Museum here in Colesberg also attended the conference. She agreed that black history was sadly unrepresented in most museums but she attributes that to different cultural approaches to the preservation of the past. She feels that blacks have kept the past alive orally where as whites are more inclined to keep a material record. However Kenneth Hudson feels that research will play a major role in levelling the playing fields of history, otherwise most of our museums could "be fossilised in an irrelevant past".

NEW FRAMEWORKS?

Is a probable framework for our local government emerging from the long process of negotiations?
Local leaders here are in the middle of more talks. But the National Forum on local government has made considerable progress. This suggests:
* our town council and Lowryville management committee are unlikely to last longer than three months;
* an appointed interim town council, for continuity and change.
* a multi-party local negotiating forum, to chose members of this new council.
* half the members will be chosen by non-statutory bodies, and half by statutory bodies (such as the town council).
* They are expected to meet be widely representative.
* After the national elections the election for a transitional local structure is expected - before the end of 1984.
* local governments are expected to operate within national guidelines, be non-racial, developmental and to some degree redistributive.

BOESAK BESOEK?

Allan Boesak is genooi om die gemeenskap in Colesberg te kom spreek.
Die uitnodiging is van ANC lede by 'n onlangse vergadering wat gehou was in Lowryville, Colesberg. "Die is gedoen om die wanpersepsies rondom die ANC aan te spreek, asook die posisie van die ANC binne die komende verkiesing," volgens ons verslaggewer. Die datum van die besoek is nog onbekend.

Meeting - fatigue is the disease of the day.

In the bad old days white trekkers made agreements with black leaders and then broke the agreements when it suited them. After a while there was no need to make anymore agreements - this was when it dawned on everyone that black people in fact had only one choice in life, and that was to do what the whites wanted.

Now there is talking again and a hundred agreements. This time it is the whites who complain that the blacks are breaking the agreements. As we can see, nothing really changes here;- only different people doing the same old things. This is quite comforting - like the sun coming up every morning and going down at night. Like the sound of gunfire in the koppies. Speaking of gunfire, maybe we should keep talking. Maybe one day someone will listen. It's worth a shot.

MY WAY

Usuku lwe 16 kaJuni olwaziwa njengosuku lolutsha luye lwathanda ukunxubisa kakhulu kuwo lonyaka. Usuku phambi komhla omkhulu wathi waba nonnquzulwano phakathi kwamapolisa nolutsha.

Iindlela zavalwa, kubekwa imiqobo endleleni kwezinye iindawo kwembiwa imngxuma kusenzela amapolisa angangeni. Iindibano phakathi kwenkokheli zemibutho zabanjwa mihla nezolo kodwa unquzulwano lwaye lukhuka. Oosomashihsini babangamaxhoba lweqela elafumana ithuba lokufezekisa iimfuno zalo. Izindlu zamapolisa amnyama kwakunye nabantu abathile nazo zahlaselwa. Imibutho enenqubo ayikwazanga ukuqhuba ngenxa yezidube-dube. Izikhalo zaphuma mbombo zone, kukhalazelwa izinto ezahlukeneyo- abantu bezithuthi bekhalazela ukonakala kwezithuthi ngenxa yemiqobo nemingxuma esndleleni- abasebenzi bekhalazela umgama emabawuhambe khon'ukuze bafumane izithuthi zabo zokuphangela- oosomashishini bekhalazela umanakalo kumashishini abo.

Kuyo yonke le mbuqe elona cala laixhamla kakhulu ngurhulumente kuba eyibona into yokuba abantu bayekile ukujolisa amandla abo ekuwiseni umbuso wakhe - sele bephazamisana kwabodwa, besenza izinto ezikhokela ekubeni balwe bodwa.

Abantu abafundiswa ngendlela zolonyulo kwaye ixesha limkile. Makujongwe iindlela zokuphumelela uvoto kuqala nokufundisa abantu ngovoto, singakhali emva kovoto sithi siqhathiwe sixele uSavimbi wase Angola.

From a police megaphone of the Internal Stability Unit?

"Môre, julle kaffirs, kom ons speel...!"

There is outrage in Colesberg at an insulting megaphone announcement - which people claim was from a vehicle of the Internal Stability Unit in Colesberg.

Several witnesses reported to us that the elite unit made the insult in central Kuyasa township early on Tuesday July 12.

People were going to work, there was no gathering, and there was no provocation at the time, witnesses said.

We had no responses from the police to our numerous attempts to speak to them.

The Mobile Law Clinic said reports were conveyed to senior police officials here and in Port Elizabeth. An investigation was promised.

Hoe het dinge nie verander nie! Adv. Fekile Bam is nou aangestel as 'n lid van die nuwe SAUK-raad. Toe hy ons in 1990 besoek het tydens die bekendstelling van die regskliniek, het hy gesê: "Ek het nie gedink dat ek die dag sal beleef dat ek 'n blanke burgemeester se hand sal skud nie." IMPROVEMENTS FOR THE KAROO'S FORGOTTEN PEOPLE

University of South Africa's Professor of Anthropology, Mr Mike de Jongh often drove through the karoo. That is how he came to notice the plight of the Karretjie mense. He decided to research this disempowered sheep shearing community, hoping in the process to heighten others awareness and effect some change.

Prof. de Jongh researched a sample of 500 Karretjie mense and found that almost 100% are illiterate! A more immediate problem is the lack of access to grazing land, running water and legitimate "camping areas" for the long spells between shearing work.Prof. de Jongh arranged a meeting with the Deputy Major Mrs Elsa Botha, a town councillor and a Lowryville resident concerned with the squatting" problem on the boundaries of Lowryville. It was agreed the Karretjie mense needed a fenced off area to prevent their donkeys from straying and being a hazard to motorists. This area should serve as residential and grazing land and should be supplied with running water.

The Secretary of the Lowryville Management Committee, Mr Deon Visagie, is now in charge of bringing these changes to fruition.

The project is two fold. The karretjie mense who have sold their donkeys and carts and who have employment would have access to basic housing. Ten modular huts made from masonite would be available for rent. These huts would be scattered through the landscape of Lowryville, the purpose being to help the new residents integrate into the community. Mr Visage said that the Lowryville Management committee is to foot the bill. The Regional Services Council has refused financial assistance, on the grounds that housing is not part of their portfolio.

In the case of the "gypsy" type Karretjie mense, a camp with one tap has been set up. Field toilets have been promised, with a weekly bucket system for sewerage.

The question still remains, who will address the problem of the Karretjie mense who are not residing within the jurisdiction of Lowryville? What of the site at the railway station?

Prof. de Jongh will continue to research the Karretjie mense and hopefully inspire those genuinely responsible to assist these forgotten people.

Reaching out from Colesberg...

Mei 19 was 'n helder herfsdag. Baie mense van regoor die Karoo het in Colesberg begin aankom. Ook gaste van die regsprofessie en menseregte-aktiviste.
Die wit dorp het weggebly.
Die atlete in die padwedloop is toegejuig. Die eregaste, Regter C.Howie, Jules Browde SC en die VSA se konsulgeneraal het gearriveer in 'n veteraanmotor van mnr Harry Gordon.

First white man home! National Director of LHR, Mr Brian Currin, catches his breath after the race.

Die appèlregter het 'n verwelkomingstoespraak gehou. Daar was kos-, handwerk- en kunsstalletjies, 'n boere-orkes, 'n township band, 'n gospel-groep, skoolkore, kerkkore, stalletjies deur Eskom, die Gesondheids-departement, Padveiligheid, die Toverberg Indaba en die Regskliniek.
Mense het gesing, gedans, geëet en gedrink, en van die een aktiwiteit na die ander gestroom. Daar was die Teater vir Dowes en die Birdbrein teatergeselkap van Kaapstad.
Die aand, in 'n meer stommige styl, het lede van die Regslui vir Menseregte in die Central Hotel vir 'n dinee, toesprake deur eregaste en 'n kabaret van die Teater vir Dowes byeen gekom.
Diè wat die feestelikhede bygewoon het, het hulself klaarblyklik geniet.
Die afwesige blankjes het 'n horde menings omtrent die hele besigheid gehad. In die sin dat dit al die gemeenskappe bymekaar moes bring, was die geleentheid 'n mislukking. In die sin dat dit die Karoo Mobiele Regskliniek aan potensiële gebruikers moes bekendstel, was dit 'n dawererde sukses.

BRIEWE...

Toverberg Indaba's failure?
With reference to your latest edition I wish to inform you that I was not at all surprised that you failed to print my letter to the municipal authorities. Actually it was merely a final test as to the authenticity of your stance as a new light to a very dark past history in this town and area.
....Your very experienced reporter with so many years overseas experience also failed...

Charlotte C. Lenderstadt, Church of Christ Africa Mission, Johannesburg.
* editor's note: Ms Lenderstadt's letter is five typed pages. She said we must print it "in full context and word perfect", or not at all.
 Her reference to the "very experienced reporter with so many years overseas experience" applies to a claim made in the Colesberg Advertiser.

Youth misguided?
An issue that needs urgent attention is our youth. We are faced with the youth which is causing havoc in the community....
There is a need to 1) inculcate a sense of discipline among the youth whom the civics have been misguiding for 3 years or so.
2) try to bring back and preserve the culture of learning which is so crucial by arranging forums where the significance of education could be tackled and addressed thoroughly...

"Voice of the silent majority". Student, Colesberg.

LETTERS...

"Uit 'n menslike oogpunt..."
Is ons besig met 'n nuwe Kruispad plakkerskamp soos die een in Kaapstad of soos Totweni blikkiesdorp in Colesberg se swart woonbuurt?
Mnr Pennels, voorsitter van Lowryville se bestuurskomitee se konstruksiespan was in " full swing" om tydelike - of is dit tot "eternity " - rondawels op te rig in Lowryville vir die soegenoemde karretjie mense.
Die miljoen dollar vraag - is Lowryville se inwoners geraadpleeg of het die persone of instansies die mense se mening gevra waar die kamp of kampe opgerig moet word?
...Uit 'n menslike oogpunt, en as Kristen, kan opheffingswerk onder plakkerbure doen maar daar is ook die teendeel. u Kan onder hul invloed kom, u kinders en gesin, miskien teen kwade of teen goede. Wie weet - die tyd sal ons leer.
Die voornemende huurders het 'n eie kultuur, 'n lewenstyl eie aan hulself.
Gaan die mense huur betaal of bly hul gratis, gaan hulle vir munisipale dienste betaal. Betaaal al dan nie wie betaal? Tog nie die gevestigde inwoner van Lowryville nie.
Mense van Lowryville en lesers wil graag weet hoekom, nie die mense se rondawels oprig waar hul nou huiglik plak nie.
Lowryville se inwoners gebruik u demokratiese reg. Vra en stel u saak. Staan op Lowryville - die onus berus op u.

"Ek wil anoniem bly." Lowryville.

INCWADI...

Civics hide-and-seek?
....It is almost 4 years that the civic enjoyed playing hide and seek with the masses. Fact of the matter is that we are still faced with bucket-system, dusty roads, rent arrears, no lights, and the list is endless. Our patience has got a limit... Now is the time that you do away with your Mickey Mouse tricks...The time has come for your name (civics) to pass into history, and the masses will forgive you but they won't forget what you had done...

"Forgive your enemy but remember his name." Roggebaai, Cape.

Where is this money, civics?
I'm a staunch reader of your newspaper and I find the issues which appear in the newspaper extremely interesting.
I respond to the " extracts from a paper of cde Spetho Asiya (April 1993)...Is the situation(of basic needs) one whereby we should wait for a Messiah to come from Heaven by a Boeing 747 and deliver these things for us?...
Hay' bo! mayiphele le waaba..You, civic, are the representatives of the people , you need to be accountable to the people...
...but what is funny is you (civic) are collecting rent from the people. Where is this money going to?...You resort to consumer boycott, which has proved to be ineffective....

(Signed but name withheld, Colesberg).

Editorial

We have survived, & grown, during these last three momentous years.
We have built at least 6 000 readers - far beyond any other publication ever in Colesberg.
No other publication has ever given such a full view of our whole society - a task long overdue.
Each issue has carried many reports which otherwise would never have appeared.
Almost all our work has been done locally, by local people; mostly volunteers.
We have developed a high standard of writing, photographs, layout, design & printing.
We are the only South African publication using each of the local languages.
While never neutral, we are independent of political parties & commercial organisations.

Redaksioneel

Min mense het al van Koppies in die Noord-Vrystaat gehoor - tot die dag toe die dorpie en sy interafhanklike buurdorpie, Kwakwatsi, die lont aangesteek het van die tydbom wat op die platteland lê en wag het vir 'n vuurhoutjie.
Nou het Koppies en Kwakwatsi teksboek-voorbeelde geword van wat kan gebeur in die maande vorentoe wanneer wit dorpies met hul swart buurdorpe daaraan dink om gesamentlike besture te bewerkstellig, en so vroeg al as in September. Duidelik heers die spanning tussen baas en klaas nog sterk. In Transvaal en die Vrystaat alleen is daar 66 KP-oorheersde stadsrade - waarvan 'n hele paar al gesê het hulle gaan die moontlike oorheersing van ANC in gesamentlike rade verbete beveg. Toe Kwakwatsi sy spiere wou wys deur boikotte en protesaksies het Koppies SY spiere uitgehaal deur werkers van Kwakwatsi met versperrings uit die dorp te hou. Eensklaps het die vertrouensafstand tussen die twee dorpies ligjare groter geword. Ondanks die bestaande strukture van dorpsraad, ANC-rade, Aksiekomitee en selfs die vredeskomitee kon geen vergelyk getref word tussen die ANC se eise en Koppies se vergunnings nie. Uiteindelik het die ekstremistiese magte van die ANC-jeug en die verwoede jong wit dorpenaars en boere op geweld uitgeloop met groot skade aan eiendom en getuienis van wit aanvalle op mense binne in die swart dorp. Koppies/Kwakwatsi het die lelikste gesig van wit-swart vrees en haat gewys.

THE STORY SO FAR...

The Toverberg Indaba celebrates its third birthday with you. To commemorate we have chosen a range of photographs from previous editions. We look forward to keeping you company through our fourth year.

Ons eerste uitgawe se hoofstorie het gegaan oor die dorp se steengroef- ontploffings, stof en (beweerde) skade. Sedertdien het dinge kalmer en minder stowwerig geword- meestal.
